

Please do not allow financial institutions to undermine the Indiana Telephone Privacy program. It's bad enough that these institutions assault us with credit card applications and loan offers through the mail. Please don't let them do it by phone.